A Pitch for Baseball

Josh Prinle

Monday, August 24, 2009

An Ottawa businessman will make a pitch for professional baseball in Ottawa today.

David Butler will arrive at Ottawa City Hall via a Bytown Trolley Bus today to deliver Ottawa Stadium Group's proposal for the former Lynx Stadium.

Butler will be accompanied by Councillor Bob Monette and a "mob of aspiring" Little Leaguers, parents and coaches.

Butler has submitted an "unofficial" proposal to the City of Ottawa and the Can-Am League for the stadium.

Butler operates Bytown Trolley Company.
