

The Bélanger name lives on in Orléans

After GM decided to pull the affiliation with them earlier this year in 2010, last Tuesday morning, the Bélanger family announced it is rebranding its Youville Drive location and has partnered with Napa Autopro and will now be known as the Bélanger Automax and Napa Autopro Service Centre. East end politicians Bob Monette, Rob Jellett and Royal Galipeau congratulate Marcel Bélanger during the early morning announcement.
