

Re: Dear Council: Read report, then vote. Sept. 3.

I agree with columnist Randall Denley.

The Lansdowne Partnership Plan will be the most positive accomplishment of our term. Council has finally supported something we can be proud of.

It was a long, gruelling day at council on Sept. 2 but with a 22-2 vote we showed the residents that we intend to move forward.

This plan has elements for everyone, from the environmentalist to the football fan. The next step now falls into the residents' hands.

It will be the crowning jewel in the nation's capital. Council needs to hear from the citizens with their thoughts of the plan.

Please, attend the public consultations or city's website www.ottawa.ca to make your voices heard. Now is the crucial time to express your opinion.
